

WHEREAS, Transportation services and facilities are vital to the social, environmental, and economic well-being of all people and their institutions; and,

WHEREAS, Highways are an essential element of the transportation network which serves the needs of all people; and,

WHEREAS, The transportation facilities which we now possess, and which we plan for the future, are the basic framework of our ultimate and continuing progress; and,

WHEREAS, The Week of September 21-27, 1975, has been designated as National Highway and Transportation Week throughout the fifty States:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period of September 21-27, 1975, as in the State of South Dakota, and call upon all citizens to observe the week with appropriate recognition of the essentiality of our transportation--and the vital role of "Transportation, America's Lifelines" in the improvement and maintenance of the good life we enjoy in our State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 16th day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Five

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR
